

Greeting	Pronunciation	Traditional Response	Pronunciation
Peace be upon you	as-salaam `alaykum	Upon you be peace	wa `alaykum salaam
Good morning	SabaaH al-khayr	Morning of light	SabaaH an-nuur
Good evening	Masaa` al-khayr	Evening of light	Masaa` an-nuur
Source: http://www.dummies.com/languages/arabic/creating-simple-verb-free-sentences-in-arabic/Redewendungen:
ahlan (hello),	marHaban (hello; greetings)	ahlan wa sahlan (welcome)
Thank you Thank you very much You're welcome Please Yes No Excuse me Pardon me I'm sorry I don't understand I don't speak Arabic. I don't speak Arabic very well. Do you speak English? Speak slowly, please. Repeat, please What's your name? How are you? Where is a good restaurant? Is the tip included? How much does that cost? Can I get on the internet? Can you help me?	Shukran shukran jaziilan 'ahlan wa sahlan rajaa'an 'ajal./naxam kalla./laa. xafwan xafwan./xuzran anaa 'aasif la 'afham anaa la 'atakallam al- xarabiyya 'anaa laa 'atakallam al- xarabiyya jayyidan. hal tatakallam 'ingilizi? rajaa'an takallam bi biT' 'axid, min faDlak ma 'ismuk? kayfa Haaluka? (m.) (kayfa Haaluki? (f.)) hal hunaaka maTxamun jayyidun? hal al-baqshiish maHsuub? kam huwa th- thaman? hal 'astaTiixa 'an 'astaxmil al-'internet? hal tastaTiixa 'an tusaaxidani?
Hier gibt es noch mehr arabisch und du kannst sogar die Aussprache anhören: Source: http://www.fodors.com/language/arabic/basic-phrases/			